Drive safe during your WA trip

Western Australians drive on the left, shorter than the French foreign drivers who drive on the right. A car driving through a roundabout, there is a car driving through the same way and the car is briefly on the opposite side. Western Australians can get a bit crazy on the road, and they don’t even have a right of way! Western Australians can get a bit crazy on the road, and they don’t even have a right of way!
