Pemberton Fr S$175

1N Stay + Pemberton Tramway - Warren River

Drive past green pastures, rolling vineyards and gigantic karri trees across the pretty timber town of Pemberton in the south west. Located near the Gloucester National Park, the area bursts into dazzling colours during wildflower season. Try ascending the 75-m Dave Evans Bicentennial Tree and the 61-m Gloucester Tree. Besides stellar wines, the region is also known for the marron, a freshwater crayfish which makes a delicious gourmet treat. For more forest adventures, visit the Walpole Wilderness Discovery Centre and do not leave the area without visiting the Valley of the Giants TreeTop Walk and strolling along a 600-m walkway set 40m above the ground. Then ascend through the Ancient Empire, a grove of veteran tingle trees and some are hollowed out for visitors to walk through. Take a tram ride to the Warren River Bridge and admire the breathtaking view of the towering karri, marri and jarrah forest.

Australia's Coral Coast – Unspoilt, Uncrowded, Underwater
Day 1: Perth to Geraldton (5 Hrs, 424km)
Travel on the Indian Ocean Drive to Geraldton. Along the way, stop at Carnarvon to visit the towering Pinacles, at Kalbarri National Park. Head further north to the historic twin fishing towns of Dongara and Port Denham. Continue upwards towards the port city of Geraldton to sample some of the finest and most renowned seafood in Western Australia. Overnight: Geraldton

Day 2: Geraldton to Kalbarri (2 Hrs, 160km)
From Geraldton, head 2 hours along the North West Coastal Highway to Kalbarri, one of Australia’s most popular holiday resorts. Here, there are spectacular red rock gorges, rugged coastal cliffs, colourful wildflowers, the Murchison River and pure white sandy beaches. Overnight: Kalbarri

Day 3: Kalbarri to Monkey Mia (4.5 Hrs, 375km)
Head further down the North West Coastal Highway to Denham, the main town in the Shark Bay World Heritage area. This is where you can see the Hamelin Stromatolithes, oldest and largest living fossils in the world. Also visit Shell Beach in the area, where you can view miles of tiny white shells. From Denham, head to Monkey Mia, put half an hour. Overnight: Monkey Mia Dolphin Resort

Day 4: Monkey Mia to Perth (10 Hrs, 866km)
Experience a morning encounter with the worldfamous Monkey Mia dolphins, known for their almost daily ritual of swimming to shore to interact with humans. Start the day early to prepare yourself for the long journey back to Perth. If time permits, make night stops along the way or continue straight back to the city.
